Prevent that you are a weather reporter for the news. Write out a paragraph about what you would say if you were going to report the weather for the day. Be sure to say your name, the date today, and what the weather is like outside. For example, is it warm, cool, hot, or cold? Does the sky look cloudy, clear, or partly cloudy? Also, make a prediction about what you think that weather will be like later today.