As a class we have just finished reading The Finish of Patsy Barnes, in which the main character, Patsy, and his mother experience some form of conflict. Using your notes about conflicts within the story, you are going to create a cartoon, which depicts one (1) conflict of your choosing.

Your cartoon should:

- Depict the series of events that occurred during the conflict
- Have at least 3 pictures. (If you have only 3 pictures, make sure to represent the most important scenes of the conflict!)
- Depict the beginning of the conflict as well as how that conflict was resolved.
- Each scene should have at least 1 sentence to describe what is in the picture. You may use dialogue to do this.
- Be in color and be neat.
- Have no spelling mistakes.

How to get started:

- Choose your conflict
- Pick out the important scenes that would help someone looking at your cartoon understand what was happening.
- Draw a quick sketch and write out your descriptions.
- Have an adult check your work. Spelling counts!!
- Do a final copy on drawing paper.
- Color!
